

May Sale of Undermuslins

We are greatly pleased at the opportunity to introduce DOVE UNDERMUSLINS to the women of Barre and vicinity. We know that they will delight and please, because they are decidedly better than the average—so well made and so dainty.

The DOVE label on Undermuslins means excellent materials, substantial laces and embroideries, well finished edges—in short, superior quality and long wear.

This coming week we will have a special display of DOVE UNDERMUSLINS, which you must be sure to see. Come and admire the pretty new DOVE styles. They are priced to please your purse.

The Philathea class of the Congregational church will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening of next week at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur W. Macneil of 168 Hill street. As this is practically the last meeting of the season, a large attendance is desired.

In an effort to abate the nuisance occasioned by the use of the railroad tracks by pedestrians, the M. & W. R. railroad officials have erected signboards along its line in Barre which call the attention of the public to the penalty provided by statutes for track walking. Trespassing and track walking are strictly forbidden and the railroad officials are using the signboards as a medium of warning, as it is intimated that prosecutions will follow failure to obey the instructions to be noted on the sign.

Alessandro Alberini, a baritone singer who is connected with the Boston Opera Co., is passing a few days with his brother, B. Alberini, in this city. Signor Alberini is one of the more noted baritone singers of the East and his work with the Boston Opera Co. has been received favorably in the Hub. Manager J. B. Eames of the Park theatre learned of the presence of Signor Alberini in the city yesterday and immediately persuaded the vocalist to favor Barre music lovers with an opportunity to hear him sing. After a conference between the manager and singer it was decided that Signor Alberini would appear at the theatre this afternoon and again this evening.

Mrs. Ella B. Moorcroft of 174 South Main street has received word of the death of her father, George Bradshaw, a retired sea captain, which occurred at his home on the west end of Chelsea, April 26 at the age of 80 years. Funeral services for Mr. Bradshaw were held in Chelsea yesterday with the interment in the village cemetery. Impassable roads prevented a number of relatives and friends of the deceased in Barre and Montpelier from going to Chelsea to take part in the obsequies. Mr. Bradshaw is survived by two sons, Oris Bradshaw and Albert Bradshaw of Chelsea, and by two daughters, Mrs. Moorcroft and Mrs. Herbert Wheelock of Montpelier. Surviving also are eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mr. Bradshaw had been an occasional visitor in this city and the capital. His wife's death occurred in July, 1902.

The monthly meeting of the Sunday school teachers' board of the Heddin M. E. church was held at the church last evening. Following the usual custom a supper was served and reports from the various committees were read afterward. The supper was in charge of Mrs. Glenn C. Carpenter and Miss Alice Farnham.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: Stoddard B. Bates of Derby, state commissioner of highways, E. G. Dewey of Hanover, N. H., H. L. Hatch of Randolph, W. D. Davis of Framingham, Mass., W. E. L. Kellogg of Albany, Alessandro Alberini of Boston, William J. Manson of Red Bank, N. J., W. N. Leslie of Portland, Me., Miss Kathleen Garthwaite of Malden, Mass., H. R. Bailey of Henniker, N. H., and Richard Devoe of White River Junction.

An enjoyable dancing party was held in the assembly hall at Spaulding high school last evening under the auspices of the class of 1917. Games and other diversions were provided for those who did not care to dance and at intermission delicious refreshments were served by a number of young women members of the class. Members of the high school faculty were present as guests of the class. The committee consisted of Miss Erlene McConachie, president of the 1917 class, and Miss Gladys Dale, Miss Rose Tomasi, Norman Gordon and Allen Johnston.

This, then, is the reason why

Some wonder why we go to such trouble and expense to demonstrate a new specialty. May we tell you?

1st. The value of any article is measured by the SERVICE it renders in use.

2d. When we discover an article, perfected, patented, STRONGER in service giving than what we already have, we want it.

3d. In order to prove or show you this ADDED SERVICE, we must demonstrate it.

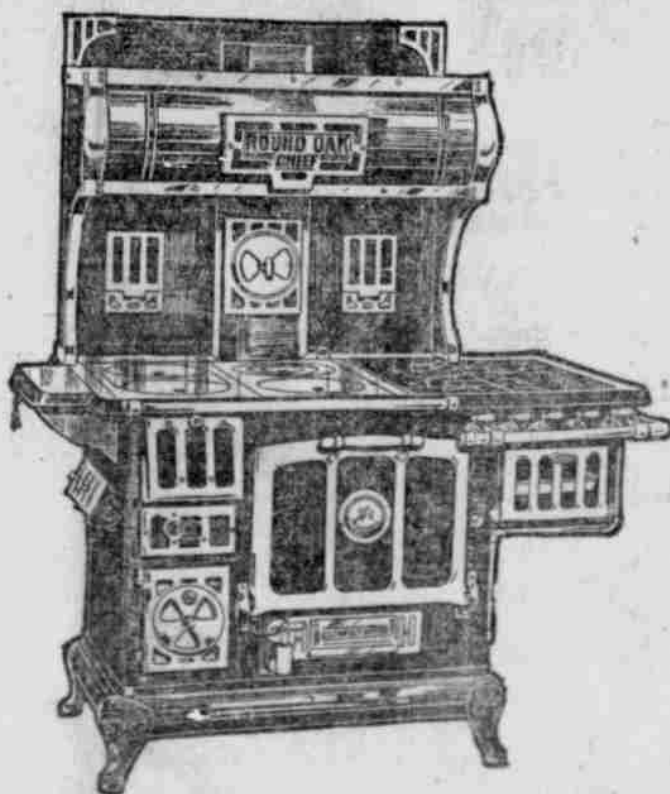

4th. When we prove our claim, then you want it.

5th. When you get it and use it, you are BETTER PLEASED and consequently a better customer and friend of the store.

That's why we exploit the better merchandise.

Consider this 3-Fuel Chief Range

The genuine Round Oak Chief combination coal, gas, and wood Range is the ONE perfected, patented, and supremely satisfactory range produced.

May we prove this?

Visit the special demonstration and sale at our store May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

See this range in operation. Discover why it uses coal, gas, wood with perfect results.

Ask the Lady Demonstrator to show you how it works. Find out why those who buy one have a warm, cheery kitchen in the bleak, cold winter. Discover why the kitchen would be cool in the stifling summer.

These are just a few reasons why you will come!

Souvenirs, of course!
